BBH Capital Partners Exits Investment in Telarix, Inc.

New York, NY, January 14, 2016 — BBH Capital Partners (“BBHCP”) is pleased to announce the completed sale of Telarix, Inc. (“Telarix”), a leading provider of wholesale and partner solutions for communication service providers to Vista Equity Partners, a leading private equity firm focused on investing in software, data, and technology-enabled companies. Terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

Michael Boylan, Managing Director of BBH and Co-Manager of BBHCP, commented, “We enjoyed working closely with Glen Kazerman [CEO] and the rest of Telarix’s management team over the past several years as they executed on their plan to become a leading provider to the international wholesale marketplace. We look forward to watching the business continue to grow with Vista.”

“BBHCP has been a great partner to Telarix in bringing not only capital but insight and perspective to help the company evaluate and develop new products and execute on a number of key strategic initiatives,” said Glen Kazerman, CEO of Telarix. “We remain focused on continuing to bring innovative and value-added solutions to our dynamic marketplace.”

Douglas Maine, Senior Advisor to BBHCP and Chairman of Telarix, added, “Telarix is a fantastic company. Glen and his team have been able to consistently expand their market opportunity through a collaborative approach with their customers and are well-positioned for future growth.”

SunTrust Robinson Humphry acted as the exclusive financial adviser to Telarix.
