Hugh Bolton, Managing Director, appointed as BBH Country Head in Switzerland

Zurich, Switzerland – 22 September 2016 – Brown Brothers Harriman is pleased to announce the appointment of Hugh Bolton as Managing Director and Office Head for Zurich. Mr. Bolton will be responsible for the firm’s strategic alignment with institutional and private bank clients and will have responsibility for BBH’s European Relationship Management discipline. He will report to Geoffrey Cook, co-head of BBH’s EMEA business and Supervising Partner for Zurich.

Having held senior positions in BBH’s European and US offices, Mr. Bolton has worked with global fund managers and financial institutions for close to 20 years. Most recently serving as Managing Director of Brown Brothers Harriman Trustee Services (Ireland) Limited and Head of the BBH Dublin office, Mr. Bolton has also co-managed the Boston Relationship Management team, with responsibility for the execution and growth strategies for some of BBH’s largest relationships.

“Switzerland is an important player in the global wealth management business and a key region for our bank and asset manager clients.” said BBH Partner Geoffrey Cook. “BBH has been committed to serving our Swiss clients for nearly 50 years. Hugh brings to Zurich deep financial and operational expertise that will help our clients achieve their growth objectives and deal with the rising complexity of the global regulatory landscape.”

Hugh Bolton added, “I’m delighted to join the Zurich team at an exciting time for both the Swiss market and BBH. The increasing demands of investors, whether through private banks or collective investment schemes, provide our Swiss clients with new opportunities and challenges. We look forward to growing our partnerships through this evolution and to being part of our clients’ continued success.”
