

BROWN BROTHERS HARRIMAN

140 Broadway
New York, NY 10005-1101

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: John Garretson
Weber Shandwick
jgarretson@webershandwick.com
(212) 546 7819

Brown Brothers Harriman Appoints Four New General Partners

February 25, 2019 – On the heels of its bicentennial anniversary, Brown Brothers Harriman & Co. (BBH) is pleased to announce the appointment of four new General Partners: Suzanne E. Brenner, G. Scott Clemons, Lorrie L. Gordon and Michael J. McDonald, effective January 1, 2019. These four leaders are well recognized in their fields and have played important roles in the industry and at BBH. Their appointments are an investment in the future of the firm and reflect recent and expected business growth.

“We congratulate Suzanne, Scott, Lorrie, and Mike,” said William Tyree, Managing Partner. “They each contribute unique skills, deep industry knowledge, and an unrelenting drive to deliver results for our clients. We are delighted to welcome them into the Partnership.”

Suzanne Brenner joined BBH in 2017 as the Chief Investment Officer for BBH’s Private Banking business. In this role, she chairs the Investment Research Group, which is responsible for capital allocation, portfolio investment decisions across client portfolios, and outside manager selection. Before joining BBH, Suzanne was a Senior Vice President and the CIO of The Metropolitan Museum of Art, where she managed the Met’s endowment. Prior to the Met, she was the Director of Investments for The Rockefeller Foundation. Suzanne is resident in New York.

Scott Clemons joined BBH in 1990 and is the Chief Investment Strategist for BBH’s Private Banking business. In this role, he is one of the firm’s leading thinkers, writers and speakers on topics related to the economy, financial markets and investing. Prior to this role, Scott was responsible for the firm’s New York Private Wealth Management business. He is a CFA charterholder and a member of the New York Society of Security Analysts and the CFA Institute. Scott is resident in New York.

Lorrie Gordon joined BBH in 1994 and is responsible for Digital Client Engagement within BBH’s Investor Services business. Lorrie is also responsible for a portfolio of client relationships in the Americas. During her tenure at BBH, Lorrie has focused on the intersection of business and technology, serving as the Global Head of Infomediary®, the Chief Systems Development Officer, and the Co-Head of Information Technology. Lorrie also established the firm’s Real Estate Fund Services business and has served in a variety of client focused roles in Custody Services, Fund Accounting, Relationship Management, and Business Development. Lorrie is resident in Boston.

Mike McDonald joined BBH in 1992 and has global responsibility for the Relationship Management discipline within BBH's Investor Services business. Mike is also responsible for a portfolio of client relationships in the Americas. Prior to this role, he led the Investor Services Global Client Service organization. Mike has held roles in Boston, New York and across Europe, including the Head of Client Service for the Americas and the Country Head of BBH Ireland. In 2012, he launched the firm's office in Krakow, Poland. Until his return to the US in 2018, Mike served as the Country Head of BBH Krakow and was also responsible for Client Service. Mike will be resident in New York.

About Brown Brothers Harriman

BBH is a privately held financial institution that has been a thought leader and solutions provider for over 200 years. The firm serves individuals, families, businesses and institutions in its three business lines: Private Banking, Investment Management, and Investor Services. BBH's culture of accountability fosters deep and lasting relationships built on commitment, adaptability, and trust. The company is independent, selective, and specialized by design.

BBH operates its global business out of eighteen offices located in New York, Boston, Beijing, Charlotte, Chicago, Denver, Dublin, Grand Cayman, Hong Kong, Jersey City, Kraków, London, Luxembourg, Nashville, Philadelphia, Tokyo, Wilmington and Zürich. For more information, please visit www.bbh.com.

BBH and Infomediary are registered service marks of Brown Brothers Harriman & Co. in the United States and other countries.